Washington, D.C. --

On Friday, March 1st, Second District Congressman Brad Carson (D-OK) will join 35 million Americans to celebrate the joys of reading through the National Education Association's 5th annual "Read Across America" Day that coincides each year with the birthday of the late Dr. Seuss (Theodor Geisel).

Congressman Carson will be reading to children at Liberty Elementary School located at 631 North Brown in Sapulpa, OK. He will be reading to the students of Liberty Elementary School from 10:00 am – 11:00 am and will also be touring the school with Principal Tom Walsh.

The National Education Association has pledged to donate a set of Dr. Seuss books to a particular school library in a Member of Congress' district if the Member participates in the "Read Across America" Day.
